This church and Pastor is a credit to the community as well as an adoration to God. This beautiful structure has been erected with monies contributed by the members and friends from time to time and when entirely completed will be clear of all incumbrances. Their motto is "Pay as you go." J. R. Richardson has pastored this church for 16 years and has had his reward for his untiring efforts. Much credit too is due his amiable and kind hearted wife, who has shared the burden with him in the struggle.
